Re: Case No. 16-11767-CMA
Notice of Continued Hearing on Applications for Compensation

Honorable Judge,

This is cry for fairness to all.

It is unconscionable to grant the lawyers handling the above case to be granted the application for fees while being told that nothing, absolutely nothing can be paid out to those who had undelivered but paid silver bars from the Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC.

The total compensation requested was for $5,501,362.04.

Would it not be fair that all share the burden pro-rata?

Why would there be such humongous lawyers efforts on this issue if there was nothing left of the Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC assets?

Why would law firms take on the case if there was nothing left?

If there was something left, should they not go to those who have already given their money to Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC?

I plead for justice from the court.

Respectfully,

Grace Yow FORMERLY GRACE CRAMER
